

The Children's Partnership developed a new factsheet on the CHDP Gateway, with recommendations on incorporating it as part of California's implementation of the ACA and further strengthened to serve as an important pathway for meeting the health and enrollment goals of health care reform while maintaining its ability for children to access needed services.