

The Governor has jumpstarted the New Year well by solidifying the state's newfound fiscal stability and opening the door to new opportunities to shore up and strengthen programs for California's children and families. A statement from Wendy Lazarus, Founder and Co-President of The Children's Partnership, was released today in response to the Governor's Budget announcement.

Read the full statement here .