

By Wendy Lazarus and Laurie Lipper

This briefing presents a data snapshot of some of the challenges we face for the 21st century along with a picture of the changing demographics affecting children and the nation over the next decade. This briefing aims to be a valuable information tool as efforts are made to address the unique needs of children and families in the years ahead.

Download the briefing (PDF, 18 KB).